The Cuba Issue of WND

It’s here! In the May issue of World Next Door Magazine (WND), learn everything you never knew you didn’t know about Cuba. Plus, the issue highlights on how to get involved with our brothers and sisters in Christ who persevere daily in the face of religious oppression just 90 miles from the U.S. Find out how EchoCuba is breaking the barriers of isolation.

The author and photographer of this issue spent 3 full weeks in Cuba capturing the reality of the church in Cuba, answering the fundamental question, What is the Church’s role in a communist state? Read More

Read the first hand experiences and emotions of two Americans understanding the complexities of an underground church network called house churches. Read More

Cuba has not been a short-term mission destination for most North American churches in the last 55 years due to the embargo. Bring down the walls of isolation today and sign up for one of our upcoming short-term mission trips. Read More
